A WORD FOR MOTHERS
It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life.
If your work is tiring; if your nerves are excitable; if you feel languid, weary or depressed, you should know that Scott's Emulsion overcomes just such conditions.
It possesses in concentrated form the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves
and build strength.
Scott's is strengthening thousands of mothers—and will help you. No alcohol.

CHRISTMAS CRACKERS.
Do "plants" for making pretty gifts grow up to Christmas trees?
And are "the sea-sons' greetings"
sent by salt sons of the seas?
Are Yule logs cut from snow driftwood? Yuletide washed ashore?
And would you stub a mistletoe against a parlor door?
If Eve had tried from holly twigs a party gown to weave Do you suppose that Adam would have called her "Christmas Eve"?
St. Nicholas in autoleigh defies police and laws.
Do regulations as to speed contain a Santa clause?
—Lippincott's Magazine.

CHRISTMAS DUSK.
Come, little boy, to mother's knee.
The Christmas twilight trembles down
With rose tints for the wondrous tree
And rose glow for the snow clad town,
And all is marvelous—but you
Most marvelous of all to me.
For I may hold you as I do.
As Mary held him on her knee.
And he was sweet and he was fair,
As are all mothers' little boys;
His lips, his smile, his eyes, his hair,
To Mary were her chiefest joys.
And he would sing to him as I
Sing while the sun dies in the west;
I hear your weary, sleepy sigh
As Mary heard his on her breast.
And in the after years, I think,
When he was treading sorrow's way
And held the bitter cup to drink
She brooded on the happy day
When he ran singing through the room
And found a hundred things to do
To drive away all chance of gloom—
And was a little boy like you.

So drop your toys and let us sing
The songs that heart and home have blest,
For love is more than anything
And life is work and play and rest.
And Mary's was the mother heart,
A heart of love all fair and fine,
That into tender throbs could start
For just a little boy like mine.

Across the years I reach to her
And touch her white and empty hands.
Down all the ages seems to stir
A message that she understands:
The subtle rapture that I keep Shrined in the very soul of me,
When I may hold you here, asleep,
As Mary held him on her knee.
—Wilbur D. Nesbit in Harper's Weekly.

Before the birth of Christ the ancient Romans indulged at the midwinter season in a festival from which it is supposed that many of the present day traditions sprung.
Presents were given and received. An expression of mutual brotherhood was shown in the custom of the masters and their slaves exchanging places and the former waiting upon the latter.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury
as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is too fast for the good you can possibly derive from them. Halls Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Halls Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J.
Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
